

Miranda May Hope

Fine Artist and Jeweler

MirandaMayHope@yahoo.com

MirandaHope.com

Education

2008 California College of Arts and Crafts

Bachelor of Fine Arts

Work Experience

2002-Present Jewelry Design and Fabrication, Viva May Jewelry Designs, Brooklyn, NY.

Wire working, metal forming, soldering, stone setting, chain-making, patina, and beading. Sales, advertising, marketing.

2007-2010 Jewelry/Metal Arts Instructor, Sonoma State Excel for Youth Summer Program, Sonoma State, Cotati Ca.

Designed and implemented course curriculum and daily lesson plans. Demonstrated the proper use of tools Instructed cold working metal and wire techniques Supervised studio time Provided students with solutions to design and fabrication problems Created budget for materials and fees, Held open house presentation at end of sessions.

2009 Jewelry Instructor, Sebastopol Center for the Arts, Sebastopol, Ca

Design and instruct course material Provide solutions for technical and aesthetic problems Assist with shows and sales.

2009 Assistant Teacher and Snake Handler, Hands On Snakes, Snake Education Program, Sonoma County, Ca.

Assisted with animal care and transportation Co-taught elementary and middle school programs

Supervised children during hands-on portion of the lessons.

2004 Children's Art Teacher, La Casa en El Arbol, Chiapas, Mexico.

Designed weekly art projects for groups of 20-25 children Taught painting, drawing, and sculpture lessons Supervised free time Taught in Spanish and English

References

Alison Marks-Director of Excel Summer Youth Programs, Sonoma State University, Cotati, Ca.

Paula Brent- Custom Fine Jeweler, Occidental Ca.

Volunteer Work

2007 Oiled Bird Rehabilitation

San Francisco Bay Oiled Wildlife Care and Education Center, Cordelia Ca.

2007 Oiled Penguin Rehabilitation

El Aquario, Mar del Plata Argentina.

2006-2008 Wild Bird Rehabilitation

Wildcare Wildlife Rehabilitation Hospital, 76 Albert Park Ln. San Rafael Ca.

2003 Wild Bird Rehabilitation

Santa Rosa Bird Rescue Center, 3430 Chanate Rd. Santa Rosa, Ca

2003 Sloth Rehabilitation

Avarios del Caribe Wildlife Refuge, Cahuita, Costa Rica.